

Free Party Acid / Hardgroove / Acid Tekno Modern/PsyTEK
Argentina, member of the first argentinian crew OUT OF SYSTEM -since 1999

Argentine DJ and live artist recognized as one of the first pioneers of acid techno and free party movement in South America starting in introducing and developing the underground free party movement in South America starting in 1999. By commercial minimal and progressive sounds imposed by the mainstream, DJ Francés brought a new sound under parties and sound system culture, with whom he shared experience as a DJ during the Acid Tribe, emphasizing high energy, hypnotic structures, and the distinctive resonance of the sound.

Francés helped organize and perform at some of the first authentic free tekno events in Argentina, establishing a new underground network outside of commercial club structures.

Platforms connecting South America with the European free tekno circuit, contributing to the growth of the genre.

Francés has curated lineups and built connections with key figures and crews from the global acid techno and free party scenes, including the founder of Stay Up Forever and founder of Stay Up Forever records.
